

Abraham Diab was born on December 14th, 1974. He has been in music most of his life since the age of 7, He was introduced to the Arab Org at the age of 13 by his late father, Abdallah Abass, who was his teacher and who inspired him to follow his dreams. Diab performs with local Arab ensembles in private weddings and parties. Additionally, he plays the Arab Accordion, performing with various orchestras. A keyboardist for over 30 years, and a percussion for 42 years, Diab is a proud Arab American Musician and honored to perform at this year's Arab America Connect: Empowerment Summit.