

John Sakakini is a Specialist at Delta Air Lines supporting Delta's international airline partners in Mexico City, Mexico and Seoul, South Korea. He has been with Delta for over four years and held roles in Revenue Management and Reservations. Prior to moving into the airline industry, John ran the Office of Public Affairs at the Palestinian Delegation in Washington, spearheaded Partnerships and Outreach for UNRWA USA, and was based in Jerusalem with ANERA working to enhance the Palestinian hotel industry. John graduated from The George Washington University in Washington, DC, where he received his BA in International Affairs & Middle East Studies and his MBA focusing on Marketing and Tourism/Hospitality Management. The son of Palestinian immigrants, John has lived in Austin, TX, Trumbull, CT, Washington, DC and internationally in Palestine, Egypt, and Mexico. He now proudly calls Atlanta home where he lives with his partner and their rescue dog, Luna.